ABSENT:

Britt Ostler, Auditor and Sesaly Reifert, Payroll and Benefits Administrator were also present for the work session pertaining to the salary survey. Britt Ostler, Auditor, took the minutes for the meeting.

WAGGONER, IRWIN AND SCHEELE & ASSOCIATES

Kent Irwin and Lori Seelen were present at the meeting for discussions regarding the salary survey. Britt Ostler and Sesaly Reifert have updated the spreadsheets to represent the 2024 salaries and bring them up-to-date to reflect the low, midline and high range of salaries compared to other public/private entities. They also updated the years of service for longevity and amounts to be paid out.

Discussion was held on each section job category:

Labor, Trades, and Crafts (LTC) A, B, C, D and E
Special Occupations (SO)
Professional, Administrative, Technological (PAT)
Civilian POLE (Protective Occupations & Law Enforcement) A, B, C and D

COMOT (Computer, Office Machine Operation, Technician) A, B and C
Elected Officials

After discussion, it was determined that new reports will need ran for Council to determine salary recommendations for dept heads and elected officials. President Dunn asked for midline totals for budgeting and longevity costs. This would include longevity Option 3 ($200 per year, 15 years, max $3000, delete for part time) and 80% for first deputies.

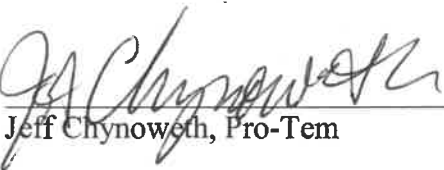

The next meeting is to be determined.

Meeting adjourned 12:10 p.m.
